

Carlos Santos

Carlos Santos, President of the Board of RNAE, holds a degree in Management Informatics from the Instituto Superior de Matemática Aplicada à Gestão and a degree in Economics from Universidade Lusófona.

With extensive experience in management and economics, Carlos Santos is currently the General Director of ENERAREA – Agência Regional de Energia e Ambiente do Interior, and AMCB – Associação de Municípios da Cova da Beira, as well as the President of the Board of RNAE. In these institutions, he is responsible for managing the organizations' overall operations and coordinating national and international projects in various areas, including planning, energy efficiency, environmental sustainability, training, and cross-border cooperation.